

Carers Week 8th to 14th June

Our goal is to walk 350 miles with a smile by the end of Carers Week 2020.

Walk 1 mile... with a smile!

Help raise awareness of carers, by walking around Devon! To record your mile and have an opportunity to win a hamper*, please email: online@devoncarers.org.uk with when and where you walked your mile.

*Hamper prize not open to Devon Carers team.

How you walk your mile is up to you – it could be by safely going out in your local area, or by walking round your garden (possibly a few times!), on an exercise machine, or even in your home.

Carers Week

Monday 8th to Sunday 14th June

What's online

In recognition of all the support carers provide to their loved ones, we are pleased to offer a range of free online activities to view during carers week.

Activities throughout the week

Virtual garden tours: take a tour around one of the many gardens in Devon, including our very own Devon Carers team, carers and volunteers gardens, Broomhill Sculpture Garden, Powderham Castle and Gardens, RHS Rosemoor, Burrow Farm Gardens, Fast Rabbit Gardens and Hartland Abbey Gardens.

Carer's cook book: a collection of recipes and photographs from carers, volunteers and the Devon Carers team.

On your bike: learn how to maintain your bike.

Carers art gallery: thematic Great Outdoors collection of carers, their families, volunteers and the Devon Carers team artwork.

Poetic carers: anthology of thematic This is Me poems written by carers, their families, volunteers and Devon Carers team.
