

Application for Student Grants

Please read this carefully before completing

The Board of Trustees asks that applicants live or have lived in the Parish of Brixton in Devon (near Plymouth) and that applicants have explored any other funding opportunities available; therefore, the Trustees request that you have undertaken this task before completing this application form. The Brixton Feoffee Trust can help students with financial support for books, travel equipment, tools or other items needed for transition from school leaving to work, further vocational training or university but the Trust cannot give a grant towards fees. Please be aware that any grant from the Brixton Feoffee Trust is not intended to replace or form part of any student loan. All applications are CONFIDENTIAL and will not be shared by the Brixton Feoffee Trust with other parties. The Brixton Feoffee Trust will require the application to be supported by an independent referee.

This information will be kept by the Clerk to the Brixton Feoffee Trust confidentially for six years, in line with HMRC and GDPR regulations and will then be destroyed. Any unsuccessful applications will be destroyed after consideration within six months of receipt.
